MEMORANDUM FOR THE DEPUTY DIRECTOR

SUBJECT: "John Fitzgerald Kennedy ... As We Remember Him"

1. This memorandum is for your information only.
2. This is a marvelous book, "John Fitzgerald Kennedy ... As We Remember Him." Charles Bartlett, Wally Carroll, John Hersey, Pierre Salinger, Tom Wicker, Ted Clifton, and others have contributed human touches and some official matters that may prove of interest.
3. On page 115, Ted Clifton states that Mr. Kennedy had his own intelligence service -- friends, etc. CIA is mentioned by Ted Szulc in his article on the Bay of Pigs on pages 127, 128, and 129. The Agency is again mentioned on page 145.
4. There is a chronology of events at the end of the book with a brief biographic statement of each of the participants in the preparation, as well as a list of photography and other credits.
